From: no-reply@vrmailer3.com on behalf of daily@publicceo.com
To: Ohtaki, Peter I
Subject: Today"s Local Government News: April 6, 2017
Date: Thursday, April 06, 2017 8:28:43 AM

View Online | Subscribe

"Updating Our Readers With California's Local Government News"

PublicCEO-1.png

Blank-Box.png

Rancho Cucamonga's Kitten Nursery Steps Up

Animal shelters nationwide are inundated during "kitten season," which typically runs from April through October. Rancho Cucamonga's Animal Center anticipated receiving nearly 1,000 orphaned kittens between the ages of 1 day and 8 weeks during the 2015 kitten season. After exploring several options, the city's Animal Center opened a 24-hour neonatal kitten nursery to provide care for kittens until they can be spayed or neutered and adopted by a new family at 8 weeks of age.

Read More.

California Air Resources Board Ratchets Up Emissions Regulations

Continuing a years-long push, the California Air Resources Board cracked down further on emissions, sharpening the debate over the scope of its plans.

Read More.

Commentary: Legislature Could Be on Road to Transparency, Accountability with Transportation Bill
Jim Mayer: With a vote looming this week on a $5.2 billion proposal for road maintenance and transit operations, the Legislature could be poised to score a win for performance, accountability and transparency.
Read More.

Commentary: Prop 13 Gets Roped into the Housing Debate
Joel Fox: The discussion on the state's housing crisis hosted by the California Realtors Association in Los Angeles last week eventually got around to Proposition 13—as you knew it would.
Read More.

BBK-PublicCEO-artwork-v2-9-15.jpg

New-Job-Ad.png

CitygateAssociates.jpg

Brown-Act-1.png

Local-Gov-Grants.png

947040-orig.jpg

MuniServices.jpg

Today's Top Headlines

Berkeley to Appoint New Police Chief, but Critics Say Department Lagging on Reforms

Napa County restoring records of yesteryear

Experimental, futuristic home in Santa Ana awarded to veteran family, others to follow

Irvine to consider committing $40 million toward veterans cemetery at Great Park

Glendale police vow not to enforce federal immigration laws

Plans to revitalize downtown Bakersfield excite residents

On A Split Vote, Palo Alto Council Votes To Give Fire Chiefs 15 Percent Raises

Roseville: City, local groups apply to create cultural district downtown

Pasadena's Budget Shortfall: What's the Answer?

Hotel developers sue San Diego

ICFA.png

SafeCities2016.jpg

Convention Center as expansion plans launch

Why San Jose businesses, officials want high-speed rail to slow its Diridon Station plans

Murrieta city manager announces retirement

Flooding relief could come to Tulare County

Arroyo Grande picks SLO County planning director as new city manager

New Folsom fire chief named following nationwide search

Could more workers be coming to San Jacinto?

California's robust snowpack raises concerns

Does LA-area need all that natural gas from Aliso Canyon? Not really, study finds

PublicCEO.com
925 University Avenue
Sacramento, CA 95818

Update your Email Preferences or Unsubscribe